1. 重述观点。(主观点; 分论点)
2. 深化主题。(提出建议, 进行展望)

Teachers should assign homework to students every day.

Agree.

1. Assigning homework every day will enhance students' understanding of the teaching content.
2. Daily assignments will enable the teachers to obtain the feedback about students' study in time.

In conclusion/to sum up/in summarization/in a nutshell/in a word, daily assignments play an indispensable role in improving students' academic performance.

With homework every day, not only students can clear away all the confusions and puzzles they encountered during classes, but also teachers can adjust their teaching content and methods based on the feedback from students' assignments.

Therefore, as students, we should accomplish our homework with high quality and efficiency.
